

Copyright for Educators

Practical copyright training for educators, librarians and administrators

- Basic introduction to copyright
- Practical copyright case studies and FAQs
- Hot topics such as using YouTube, Netflix, Audiobook etc
- Finding and using 'Creative Commons' licences and 'Open Education Resources'

This seminar is presented by the National Copyright Unit (NCU). NCU was established by the COAG Education Council to provide advice and support to Australian Schools and TAFEs.

<http://www.smartcopying.edu.au/educational-resources/national-copyright-seminar-series-2019>

Educators are invited to attend one or more of the program sessions. We recommend attending A and B or C to get the full benefit.

- Program A: Thursday, 20 June, 10am - 12:15pm - Copyright basics; Statutory licence for copying text and images; Music licences; Free-use exceptions, You Tube, Netflix and iTunes. Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/copyright-for-educators-program-a-tickets-59559819022>
- Program B: Thursday, 20 June, 1pm - 4pm – Smartcopying tips and Creative Commons; Workshop – practical case studies. Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/copyright-for-educators-program-b-tickets-59560616407>
- Program C: Friday, 21 June, 12pm- 4pm – Copyright basics; Statutory licence for copying text and images; Free-use exceptions, You Tube, Netflix and iTunes; Smartcopying tips and Creative Commons. Register at: <https://www.eventbrite.com.au/e/copyright-for-educators-program-c-tickets-59561104868>

Location: Melbourne Multicultural Hub, 506 Elizabeth St, Melbourne